Photo images

Photo images of complete Monogram and GE Profile™ kitchens are available for you to use in creating a wide variety of marketing materials.

Ordering is easy. First, however, you must decide how the photos will be used. This will determine whether you require high- or low-resolution images.

Choose high-resolution images for print applications such as newspaper and magazine ads or direct mail pieces. Choose low-resolution images for the Web, for PowerPoint presentations and other digital applications.

How to order

You can request a kitchen image by specifying the name of the kitchen design, or by appliance model numbers identified in each of the following photographs.
